

I am just a citizen who is alarmed at the actions of the Sinclair Group requiring their many stations to air an anti-Kerry show just before the election, labelling it as "news," and not planning to give equal time to a comparable pro-Kerry show. This is just one more reason why the FCC needs to look more carefully at how many stations it allows any one company to control, in America--and whether those stations are in fact serving the public interest.